

World Space Week 2020

Nursery have enjoyed learning all about Space. We have made our own rockets using a variety of construction materials. We have learnt the names of all the planets and enjoyed learning interesting facts. We used star stampers to make space pictures and have drawn lots of space pictures. We read the story 'Whatever next' by Jill Murphy.

