

Monday 5th October 2020

Space week

Year have investigated the planets this planets week.

We did a maths activity which divided clay into fifths to create an accurate scale of the planets. We have done some investigating and research into the planets to create a whole class non-chronological report. We have also done some art where we used our knowledge of colours and blending to create the planets.

