Nursery Reception Leo's Den Main Entrance

Information for Parents and Children
September 2023

Entering the School

For Nursery and Reception, please use the gate on the left-hand side.

Please also use this gate for Leo's Den before and after-school care and if you need to visit the main office at the entrance of the school.

Nursery, Reception, Leo's Den and the main entrance

Follow the pedestrian path down to the main building.

Main Entrance

At the bottom of the path, turn right through the gate to access the main entrance of the school.

You will need to enter school this way if you arrive late, after 8:55 am, or if you need to speak to the school office.

Bike Shed

There is also a bike shed outside the main entrance where bikes and scooters can be left during the school day.

Leo's Den

For Leo's Den, instead of going up the steps to the main office, continue down the path and the door for Leo's Den is located on the right-hand side.

Nursery and Reception

The entrance for Nursery and Reception is at the bottom of the path past Leo's Den.

The Early Years staff will open the gate at 8:45 am each morning to allow the children to enter the school. Parents arriving before this time will need to queue outside Leo's Den.

Nursery

The first door that you will come to is for Nursery.

Reception

Reception is the third door.

Early Years Outdoor Area

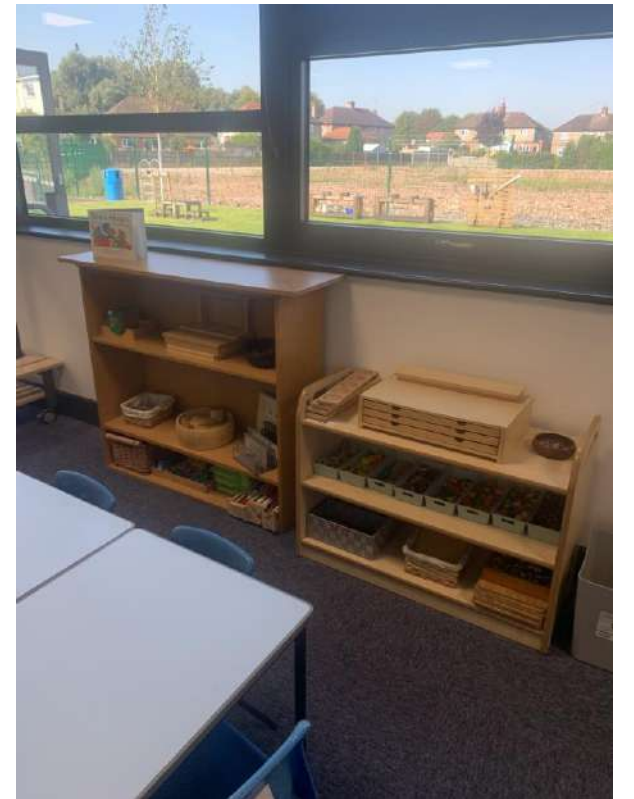

Nursery and Reception will share this outdoor area.

Year 1 and 2 – temporary arrangements

We are currently waiting for the path to be put in which will allow parents to walk from the main playground around to the Year 1 and Year 2 classrooms. This should be ready for us to use from Monday 18th September.

There will be temporary arrangements in place for the next two weeks for Year 1 and Year 2 to enter and exit the building.

Year 1 and 2 – temporary arrangements

Year 1 and Year 2 will temporarily enter the building through the hall door where members of staff will be waiting to greet the children and take them to their classrooms.
